Russian Anti-doping Agency RUSADA
Mrs A. Antseliovich

Сс: ICF Secretary General Mr Simon Toulson

Dear Mrs Antseliovich,

As you are aware on July, 26, 2016 the Russian Canoe Federation received an International Canoe Federation's letter (enclosed) according to which five Canoe Sprint athletes were declared ineligible for the participation in the 2016 Olympic Games, namely:

- Elena Aniushina [REDACTED]
- Natalie Podoskaia [REDACTED]
- Alexander Dyachenko [REDACTED]
- Andrei Kraitor [REDACTED]
- Alexey Korovashkov [REDACTED]

At the same time no facts about the testing authority, dates of tests or information on testing laboratories were presented neither to the Federation, nor to the athletes.

Besides in the mentioned ICF's letter it is stated that there were 27 suspicious cases, 16 of which are declared as incorrect results reports. As the same time in the mentioned letter it is stated that our Federation is to investigate all the cases of using doping but no particular cases are named. Also please note that the successful investigation is the right way for our Federation to secure its membership in the International Canoe Federation which seems to be extremely important for us.

We are sure that sometimes ADAMS is being kept not correct, namely:

- Some tests are missed while athletes keep the testing protocols and we know that the tests took place,
- In spite the timeframes for the samples analyses some results are missed (i.e. for 2012),
- In some cases places of samples collection are missed so there is no opportunity to investigate the testing authority.

According to the abovementioned facts the Russian Canoe Federation asks RUSADA to provide the full information of all the tests of the Russian Canoe Sprint athletes in the period of January, 01, 2010 – July, 27, 2016 including the tests results.

Also please inform our Federation about the procedure of AAFs of the athletes named in the McLaren report.

Enclosures:

- Letter in Russian
- International Canoe Federation's letter of July, 27, 2016
- Screenshots of ADAMS pages of the Russian Canoe Sprint athletes

Regards,

Evgeny ARKHIPOV
NF President
